Weather/Contingencies

Should weather, unavailability of the location, terrorism, acts of war or acts of God or any other conditions not under the reasonable control of the St. Louis Council of Construction Consumers prevent execution of the event or any part of it, the Council will make best efforts to provide alternative activities to promote industry networking. Partial or total refunds of any registration, sponsorship or other fees shall be in the Council's sole judgement.

Registration fees

The St. Louis Council of Construction Consumers invites all members to participate and to invite non-members. If non-members are registered and paid for by members, the registration fee is at the member rate.

Non-members may also register and participate at the non-member rate for those registered by the non-member. The difference between the non-member and member registration fees may be credited toward membership dues if the organization joins and pays membership dues for the current membership calendar year within one month of the event.

Choice of Golf Course

Please indicate your preference for choice of the courses available on your registration form. The Council will attempt to satisfy course preference but cannot assure you that you will be assigned to your first choice.

Non-profit organization

The St. Louis Council of Construction Consumers is a not for profit corporation organized under Section 501 (c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. Dues, contributions, registration fees and sponsorships are not deductible as charitable contributions, but may be deductible as business expense. Consult your tax advisor.

The Council's federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) is 43-0968213.
