7:30 - 10:00 am

Engineering Center

4359 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63108

Presented by:

ST. LOUIS COUNCIL OF CONSTRUCTION CONSUMERS

This program was designed to:

Curate Safety Training Strategies for First Line Supervisors

- ◆ Assess how investment in training for new employees can translate into safety benefits for your company & their quality of life.
- ◆ Examine strategy for driving safety.
- ◆ Evaluate how to leverage on line training and measure effectiveness.
- ◆ Discuss how to empower workers to build a safety culture.

OSHA New Directions

- ◆ Review what can be expected for online record keeping & reporting requirements.
- ◆ Assess the status of the silica rule & what impact it will have.
- ◆ Review how walking-working surface standards for general industry apply to construction.
- ◆ With the change in administration, assess what shifts are occurring between enforcement efforts vs. partnerships?.

Presenters:

Jared Ragsdale, MC Industrial

Musial Braungardt, Laborers Training Program

John Regan, L Keeley Construction

Bob Salek, Monsanto

Bill McDonald, OSHA Area Director, St. Louis Area Office

The program's training was designed to qualify for 0.2 CEU's for re-certification through the Board of Certified Safety Professionals (BCSP), 2 Professional Development Hours (PDH) for Professional Engineers under Missouri statutes and 2 Learning Units (LU) hours through the American Institute of Architects. Please retain this as a record of your participation.
