PROGRAM SUMMARY

This webinar is our experts anticipated look at COVID-19 after the peak issues.

Bidding will likely be filled with a significant amount of unknown which means contract language and agreements are even more important in a post peak environment in anticipation of a reemergence of COVID-19.

Force Majeure Impact – The impact of COVID-19 on construction and commercial contracts will be significant if force majeure is claimed or activated. This will impact the team, suppliers, and vendors.

OSHA Guidance – We all look to OSHA for guidance on workplace safety. So what are recommendation for the construction industry? Learn more here on OSHA Guidelines.

Work Environment Changes for Safety – Changes to commercial real estate or corporate offices have already been implemented, but what further changes will be needed? Melissa Smith-Groff will discuss re-thinking build outs, floor plans, etc.
