PDH/LU FORM

WEBINAR: HOW CULTURE EATS INNOVATION FOR BREAKFAST

PROGRAM SUMMARY

This program is a follow up panel discussion from last year's July technology event "How is Design & Construction Technology Driving Your Business Today." The panel discussed technology currently used in the AEC industry and its impact on organizational business processes. This panel of local AEC practitioners will provide an in-depth discussion at "How Culture Eats Innovation for Breakfast" and the varied approaches to implementing new technology that incorporates culture.
