MEET OUR SPEAKER

MICHAEL LAUER, MBA

BJC HealthCare
Executive Director of Emergency Preparedness, Environmental Health & Safety, and Security

Mr. Lauer is responsible for overseeing emergency management, environmental health & safety, plus security services for all of BJC Healthcare's hospitals, clinics and office buildings.

BJC HealthCare System is comprised of 14 hospitals in Missouri and Illinois, with the largest hospital being Barnes-Jewish Hospital, a 1200+ bed hospital affiliated with the Washington University School of Medicine.

Prior to moving into his current role, Mr. Lauer was the executive director for the Barnes-Jewish Hospital Public Safety Department, a public safety communications center, security access systems, emergency preparedness, as well as five other non-clinical support services at the hospital.

He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy's 185th Session. Lauer has served as the Director of Public Safety for Saint Louis University from 2008 until 2010, and he was a police officer with the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department from December 1987 until January 2008.
