Keynote Speaker: Heather Fleming, In Purpose Education Services

Heather Fleming is the founder and director of In Purpose Educational Services, author of the book My Black Friend Says..., co-host of the Listen Learn Love Podcast, and founder of the MO Equity Education Partnership (MoEEP). Prior to her work with In Purpose, she spent 8 years in the public service sector before moving into education. She served as an English Language Arts teacher for 14 years before becoming a full-time equity and inclusion training and program design professional. Her goal for her work in this field is to promote healing, understanding, and equity for all.
