

SLC3 SHOW ME AWARDS

“2026 Design Firm of the Year”

The Design Firm of the Year Award recognizes an exceptional design firm whose work demonstrates excellence, creativity, and leadership across the Architecture, Engineering, and Construction (AEC) industry. This award honors firms specializing in architecture, engineering, interior design, lighting design, landscape architecture, and related disciplines that shape the built environment through innovation, technical expertise, and thoughtful design.

Eligible firms may be recognized for design excellence, successful project delivery, interdisciplinary collaboration, and the ability to balance aesthetics, functionality, sustainability, and performance. Consideration is given to firms that advance industry standards through innovative approaches, emerging technologies, and integrated design solutions.

The award also highlights organizations that invest in talent development, foster inclusive and collaborative cultures, and contribute to their communities and the profession through leadership, mentorship, and industry engagement. The Design Firm of the Year represents the vision, creativity, and technical excellence that elevate the AEC industry and improve the spaces where people live, work, and gather.

Please complete the nomination form for this award below. This Form MUST accompany your submission.
